

LANTERN COURT

For a developer, there is no greater challenge than taking an existing project and transforming it into their own . At Lantern Court, this challenge involved one of Milwaukee's most beautiful and historic buildings. Twenty-seven individual apartments were converted into large, luxurious condominiums. Ranging in size from 2,000 to 4,000 square feet, each unit featured hardwood floors, vaulted ceilings, and crown molding accents.